

THE EVIDENCE!

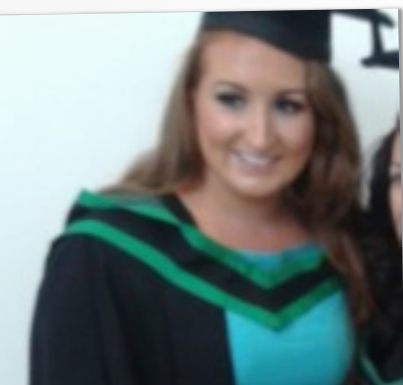

MILLIONS OF CONGRATULATIONS TO ALL OUR STUDENTS ON EXCELLENT A LEVEL RESULTS.

Excellent Outcomes and Dreams Fulfilled

No wonder Kevin is smiling! Great students, Rachel and Clara Robinson, A* student Rachel off to Queen's to study Irish and sister Clara with a grade A in Irish while still in year 12. Great staff too, as Ian McMillan celebrates his grade A in AS Latin. Another A* student Naoibh, choosing between sports psychology in Liverpool and studying in New Zealand. Emma, nearly squeezed her out, off to the University of Ulster to study geography. Jamie, delighted with his science and maths results. This is also the time of year when we hear the news of our students graduating from university, and pursuing their careers. In the pictures, Claire graduated in Business Studies from University of Ulster and plans a career in human resources; Paddy graduated with a 1st in politics from Sheffield University; Laura Mae graduated in Technology and Design from University of Ulster and begins her PGCE.

As well as all those pictured: Daisy has graduated from Cambridge University in Natural Sciences: Zoology, on her way to her degree in veterinary medicine; Daniel graduated with a first class honours degree in mathematics from Queens and an Institute of Mathematics and its Applications prize; Katie McCombe graduated from Cambridge in history; Fionnuala Nellis graduated from Edge Hill University in Early Childhood Studies.

CLAIRE IN BUSINESS STUDIES

ELSIE'S BIRTHDAY

PADDY IN POLITICS

Even More Wonderful News from our Wonderful Students - keep us up to date.....

V'Cenza Cirefice graduated with 1st class honours in geography from Aberdeen University; Maryam Roohipour graduated in Advertising Design from University of Huddersfield; Nicole Bannon achieved a Distinction Star in Equine Studies from CAFRE Enniskillen; Michael McAnulty graduated from Queens with a Masters in Engineering and was immediately employed by Caterpillar.

Lots of OldScholars' other news reached us over the summer too: Kirsty McComish graduated in Film and Television from Edge Hill University last year and is now working away at her photography in New Zealand; Conor Poland has been appointed to a research post at Oxford University; Robert Emmet is thrilled with his first year of drama at Magee University College and already has an impressive list of performances; Alec Cole, after a degree in Financial Mathematics from Galway University, several years in banking, has just completed his PGCE; Johanna Ross, after two years of study at Leeds University is heading to Aarhus University in Denmark to complete her studies; Barry Cousins is delighted to begin his new post in web design with a Belfast firm, after working in Chester since his graduation in ICT; Wills McNeilly begins his PhD in archeology at Queens University; Liam Baron is flying solo with the Northern Universities RAF Squadron, and starting his final year of an engineering degree at Durham University; Conan Dillon, after a gap year, is heading to St Scholastica's in Duluth Minnesota for a degree in Sports Studies; Ben Cullen is in his final year there, studying history and Spanish.

This is just a flavour of the huge range of futures our Shimna OldScholars have achieved. Keep it coming!

SHIMNA STAFF MEMBER SHIRLEY MCMILLAN HAS GRADUATED WITH MERIT IN HER MASTERS IN CREATIVE WRITING.

THE PICS

ALEX AND GORGEOUS SON

CONNOR AND FRIEND

LIAM

LIAM AND MORE LIAM

A FEW OF OUR GRADUATIONS

WHAT A WONDERFUL TIME OF YEAR, WITH NEWS AND PHOTOS COMING IN OF GRADUATIONS AS WELL AS OUR EXCELLENT A LEVEL RESULTS: LAURA MAE GRADUATES IN TECHNOLOGY AND DESIGN AND STARTS HER PGCE; AISLING IN EARLY CHILDHOOD STUDIES; KIMBERLEY IN GEOGRAPHY AND STARTS HER MASTERS; PERRINE IN ESTATE MANAGEMENT AND BUSINESS; JEANNINE IN CIVIL ENGINEERING, WITH DISTINCTION IN MARITIME ENGINEERING.